

ONLINE SCHOOLING DURING SCHOOL CLOSURE: WEEK 3 - 3/30/20 to 4/3/20

General Directions:

I am going to continue to use Google Classroom for our assignments. I have added an assignment regarding Lord of the Flies, which includes two pages of the final exam (I am going to divide this exam in two, so the second half will be next week). Please type that and submit that as well as LOTF p. 42, 43, 52, 64 & 65

MUGSHOT MONDAY: (Please correct and upload in Google Classroom)

At the Halloween dance the catering committee recieved many complements for their squid eyeball stew.

The new improved laundry detergent restored Connor's mud stained pants to its original condition

LITERARY TERMS TUESDAY: (write this term in your ELA notebook)

Euphemism

A euphemism is when a more mild or indirect word or expression is used in place of another word or phrase that is considered harsh, blunt, vulgar, or unpleasant.

Example: "I'm so sorry, but he didn't make it." The phrase "didn't make it" is a more polite and less blunt way of saying that someone has died.

WORDS on Wednesday: (write these words in your notebook, look up definitions and upload in Google Classroom - from LOTF)

malevolently

taboo

daunting

impervious

THURSDAYS are That Day: (please respond to the following prompt and upload on Google Classroom)

Chapter 11: Topic 1 As time has passed on the island, life has changed. How have the boys changed and why? Consider Roger in chapter 4 (throwing rocks at Henry) and what he does to Ralph and Piggy now.

Friday: Do not forget to spend at least one hour on SSR and record the minutes you have read and keep track of your pages.
