

Full Circle Project at California State University, Sacramento

Fall 2021 – Spring 2022 Application

What is the Full Circle Project (FCP)?

The Full Circle Project (FCP) is a program funded by the U.S. Department of Education and Sacramento State. FCP is the premiere retention program to primarily address the diverse needs and interests of Sacramento State's Asian and Pacific Islander (API) students, as well as many of the underserved student populations. FCP provides strong academic support, intentionally planned leadership options, and co-curricular service-learning incentives to engage in campus and community-based service activities.

Who May Apply?

Graduating high school seniors. First-time freshman must meet the CSU Eligibility Index admissions requirement.

Program Services

- Ethnic Studies Courses
- FCP Scholarships
- Peer Mentoring
- FCP Community Building Events
- APIA Graduation Ceremony
- Fall Learning Communities
- Class Registration Assistance
- FCP New Student Orientation
- Career Counseling
- Advising Services
- Retention Services

Full Circle Project Learning Community

We have developed a pathway effort to assist our incoming first-year FCP scholars during their first semester of college in a holistic approach. Admitted FCP scholars will be assigned to a Learning Community, which will include a first-year seminar course and an introduction to Asian American Studies course (fall 2021) and a social change course (spring 2022). The FCP Learning Community is a cohort of students and faculty who all work and learn together to thrive successfully in their first year.

How to Apply

Submit an online application here: <http://bit.ly/fcpapp21>

Note: We understand that there is a chance that you may not attend Sacramento State in fall 2021. Regardless of what will happen next year, we highly encourage you to apply to join FCP because seats are limited, and you can always rescind your application at any given time before the start of fall 2021.

Deadline to submit an FCP application for fall 2021: March 1, 2021
